When You Think of Me

When you think of me,
Think of the laughter we shared,
Hold on to the smile,
For I know you cared.

When you think of me,
Remember the tears we cried,
Both happy and sad and know,
That I leave here with all the love we had.

When you think of me,
Look to heaven and send me a smile,
And know that in your heart,
I'm with you all the while.

When you think of me,
Reach out to someone I love,
And let me share,
In your joy from above.

A Service of Love

For

William "Moot" Lassiter

Sunrise March 3, 1948 - Sunset December 31, 2017

"Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.
2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so,
I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."
John 14:1-3 (KJV)

The Obituary

William Lassiter, better known as "Moot", son of the late Gilbert Lassiter and Lucille Haywood Freeman, was born on March 3, 1948 in Wake County, North Carolina. He entered into 'Eternal Peace' on Sunday, December 31, 2017.

William received his early education in the Wake County Public School System.

William joined the United States Army in 1968 and received an honorable discharge after his tour of duty. He resided in Pennsylvania from 1980 until 2003. After returning to North Carolina, he was employed at Iron Works as a Welder in Zebulon, NC.

William will be most remembered for his kind heart. Whenever he entered a room you would know he was there, because he was so full of life.

William was always willing to help in anyway he could. He was also well known for his talent of working on cars.

William Lassiter leaves to cherish his precious memories; one son, William Ford, one stepson, Robert Ford, and one grandson, Jayden Ford, all of Philadelphia, PA; four sisters, Doris Pullen (Henry), Mary Ann Freeman (James), Linda Brandon (James) and Shirlene Pullen (William), all of Raleigh, NC; very special cousins, Peggy Ann Haywood and Hubert Dunn; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Each night we shed a silent tear,
As we speak to you in prayer.
To let you know we love you,
And just how much we care.
Take our million teardrops,
Wrap them up in love,
Then ask the wind to carry them,
To you in heaven above.
