

Death Came Quietly

Death came quietly, and gave me gentle sleep,
To those that I leave behind, please don't you weep;
The good Lord giveth, and at times He takes away,
Nothing on His earth, is forever here to stay.

Rejoice now and celebrate, the life He gave to me,
All things that happen, are surely meant to be.
When I was alive, you were all so dear,
If you just remember the good times,
You'll feel that I am near.

It's times like these, that weigh heavy on the heart,
Put a smile on your face, and make a brand new start.
Family and friends I loved, please don't you weep.
Death came quietly, and gave me gentle sleep.

Acknowledgment

We, the family of the late Takeisha Crystal Scott, wish to express our sincere and deep appreciation to our family and many friends for the love you have shown to us during the passing of our loved one. Please continue to keep us in your prayers. It is because of your kind and loving support that this heavy load has been made a little lighter. May God who is able to keep us from falling richly bless each of you.

Messenger of God

Oh, Little Butterfly, messenger of God,
When I see you in the sky, I cannot help but nod.
You bring me respite from grief and despair
Every time I see you sailing through the air.
You renew my faith in all God's wondrous plan,
And I know it's all in FAITH, not in what I understand.

Like A Butterfly

- She's Sailing -

Takeisha Crystal Scott, daughter of Ms. Kay Scott, was born on August 26, 1984 in Raleigh, North Carolina. She transitioned from this earthly life and entered into 'Eternal Peace' on May 27, 2018 at Universal Healthcare in Oxford, North Carolina.

Takeisha was reared in Wake County and received her early education in the Wake County Public School System.

Takeisha dearly loved butterflies and could often be seen wearing clothing showing the dear sweet creatures. She had a sweet and gentle spirit, like that of a butterfly.

Takeisha was well-loved by family and friends and will be missed in the hearts and lives of those she touched.

Takeisha Crystal Scott leaves to cherish her precious memories and mourn her passing; her children, TiAunjai Latrel Williams, Jalea Taylor, Honesty Eadonna Tylone Scott, Olivia Danielle Keith, all of Raleigh; her mother, Kaye Scott and stepfather, Larry Baldwin; her sister, Gabelle Scott; her brothers, Rico Scott, Tico Scott, and Timothy Scott, all of Raleigh; her grandparents, Dorothy and Lawrence Scott of Raleigh, and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, other relatives and friends.

God saw that you were getting weary
So He did what He thought was best,
He came and stood beside you,
And, whispered, "Takeisha Come and Rest."

You bid no one a last farewell, Not even one good-bye,
You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why.

You left us very quietly, but you left us many memories that we are proud to own. God's garden is truly beautiful,
He had taken you to His heavenly home.
