

The Cord

*We are connected,
My child and I,
by An invisible cord
Not seen by the eye.*

*It's not like the cord
That connects us 'til birth
This cord can't be seen
By any on Earth.*

*This cord does its work
Right from the start.
It binds us together
Attached to my heart.*

*I know that it's there
Though no one can see
The invisible cord
From my child to me.*

*The strength of this cord
Is hard to describe.
It can't be destroyed
It can't be denied.*

*It's stronger than any cord
Man could create
It withstands the test
Can hold any weight.*

*And though you are gone,
Though you're not here with me,
The cord is still there
But no one can see.*

*It pulls at my heart
I am bruised...
I am sore,
But this cord is my lifeline
As never before.*

*I am thankful that God
Connects us this way
A mother and child
Death can't take it away!*

Celebration of Life

Gabrielle Dionne-Jenee Cormier

quietly entered into eternal rest
Thursday, June 14, 2018.

Gabrielle was born January 13, 1985 in Richmond, Virginia to Gloria and Willie Lee Smith. She attended Victory Christian Academy from grades K5 through 6th. She found Christ at an early age, was baptized and a proud member of Faith Landmarks Ministries. Gabrielle loved to dance growing up and took ballet lessons from age eight to thirteen. She also sang, played the keyboard and the clarinet. She was a very private person and never spoke unkind words about anyone.

She often spoke of her love for Jesus at a young age and would read her Bible on the way to ballet rehearsals on Saturday mornings. Her favorite Chapter was Revelation and she would always smile and say, "Mom, I want to be just like Jesus when I grow up". Jesus was 33 years old when he was called home to our father and so was Gabrielle.

Gabrielle graduated from L.C. Byrd High School in 2003. She attended John Tyler Community College to become an Accountant while she worked for the Richmond Metropolitan Transportation Authority (RMTA). She was also employed by the Department of Criminal Justice Services. She loved Math and would often go to summer school to get ahead on her classes.

She was preceded in death by her grandfather, Isaac Allen, Sr., and her uncle Isaac Allen, Jr. She leaves to cherish her memories Gloria Cormier, mother and Horace Cormier, Jr., step-father, Emily V. Allen, devoted grandmother, William and Rugena Allen, uncle and aunt, Maxine Allen, aunt, William Isaac, Brittany, Christina, Jillian, Gizelle, Gage, Farrah and Gina Allen, cousins. Three great aunts, two great uncles, a host of family members and friends
